

I am against the expansion of LPFM in a manner which would allow smaller local stations to override broadcasters which use local translators for expanded coverage. I Use a local translator to receive AIR 1 and fear its coverage would be reduced not only locally but in many areas of the country that I travel. I believe that Air 1 is a positive service to many communities and do not want to see it overridden in any market.

Thank you

Kurt Kreager